SALESMEN—Investment security; high grade una wanted; commission basis. Hann, 115 Broadway. HELP WANTED-MALE.

For years I have sold and associated my elf with salesmen. We all seem to be allke valting for that one big chance which w move will some day come to us. I know, fo was the same myself.

You think security selling is hard. It is not, when you have a well established house behind you and an article that is a going proposition in great demand with the production already oversoid.

We are not interested in every old Tom, Dick or Harry. If you are equal to the quality of this organization, there is a big opportunity for a few men to become man-agers of our branch offices after they show their ability to handle the proposition.

Our work is dignified. Your chance, to study business and men of afafirs, offers ex-perience that money cannot buy. You are placed in a position with a future, while arning a good assured income on a commis-tion basis.

Did you ever breathe the atmosphere of success where all work, amile and play to-gether, and where every man feels that one and all must succeed? Let us get acquainted. You might be juthe man we want and probably this is juthe opportunity you have been seeking. On at your convenience.

Suite 1819, Platiron Building
